USPA NEWS - The Patriotic Loyal British Conservative Members are Urged to Vote Kemi Badenoch in the National Interest of Britain

Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner, is joining millions of patriotic members of the British community to urge the loyal members of the Conservative Party, to vote for Kemi Badenoch, as the next leader of the Conservatives, in the national interest of Britain and the Conservative Party.

Shazada Hayat said, In order for any country's democracy, justice and fairness to flourish and properly be upheld and respected, a nation needs a powerful balanced opposition. It is not in the national interest or democracy to have any government who has an outright and landslide victory which leaves a weak opposition. This is not about Labour or Conservative but the national interest of the country. It does not matter whether it is ex-PM Boris Johnson or the current PM Keir Starmer any government that has overwhelming majority is unhealthy for any democratic nation. Throughout history, many prime ministers who have won landslide victories have become dictators, because of the ineffective opposition. These overwhelming landslide victorious prime ministers in effect became, "Dictators with a democratic hat".

The last British Indian Prime Minister Rishi Sunak, destroyed the fabric of British politics. The British public showed their hate for PM Rishi Sunak and kicked him so hard out of UK politics. However, the fallout buried the Conservatives under so much rubble which is beyond comprehension. This means not only the Conservative Party lost the general election, the worst suffered by any political party in Europe's history, but has also put the Conservative movement on a life support machine. The only person who can restore the Conservative Party and take the party off the life-support machine is most certainly Kemi Badenoch. The remarkable lady knows how the Conservative movement has been betrayed, also at what scale and depth.

Kemi Badenoch genuinely shares the values of the millions of Conservative voters, who have deserted the Conservative Party. Shazada Hayat went on to say, They say if you want something said ask a man, but if you want something done, ask a woman. Kemi Badenoch has the knowledge, experience and wisdom to create the roadmap to Conservative success and victory. This means to rebuild and re-launch the Tory brand. Kemi Badenoch has the ability to unify the left and right wing of the party, which has been mishandled and badly treated by Rishi Sunak. Kemi Badenoch is now the only desirable and best choice for the Conservative leadership. The Conservative leadership election is not just about what's best for the Conservative Party, but the patriotic members of the Conservative Party must put the national interest of Britain first and realise who is best for both Britain and the Conservative Party.

The British patriotic public at large, many of them do not belong to any political party but are the largest voting public, would like to see an effective opposition to bring back the equilibrium and balance in British Parliament, and see Kemi Badenoch is a safe pair of hands.

The Conservative members must realise that the catastrophic damage done by Rishi Sunak and his supporters, have betrayed Britain and the Conservative Party. The general election 2024, is the clear proof. It is time for the members of the Conservative Party to pick a leader who can nurse the Conservative Party back to full recovery once again, to have a strong British government and a formidable opposition. Britain needs a great opposition leader in its hour of political need. The Conservative Party also needs a great leader. Kemi Badenoch is most certainly the next Margaret Thatcher in waiting, with her own unique style of leadership. Kemi Badenoch is destined to be Britain's next great prime minister in waiting, said : Shazada Hayat.
